The nose shows a mixture of brambling cabernet fruit mixed with ripe merlot plums and a subtle violet perfume. The palate is generous and full, with brooding dark chocolate and mint, and sweet sarsparilla berries. Tannins begin as dusty cocoa but flesh out to finish long, chewy and succulent. This is a wine that delivers complexity and texture in spades!

The result is a deep purple red wine with touches of ruby. Lifted dark berry and plum fruit aromas dominate the nose with hints of chocolate and anise. The palate is smooth and even with generous fruit flavours of licorice, raspberry and allspice. Soft tannins and berry fruit persistence lead to a long, slightly savoury finish.

Kalleske Pirathon Shiraz

N-W Barossa

SA
